

Find poetry

1

Spend a day listening to the things that you hear people around you say. Write down the words, phrases or sentences you overhear.

2

Create a poem by putting the words, phrases or sentences together in any order you like.

